

The ABCs Of Helping Your Child With Reading

- Ask questions while reading together, “what do you think will happen next?”
- Buy books as gifts for birthdays, Christmas, Hanukkah, or other holidays.
- Chat about what is happening in the book and how it relates to everyday life.
- Drop everything and read. Set aside 20 minutes a day during for the whole family to read.
- Examine book illustrations in detail. Select books that have large, bright pictures.
- Find books that interest your child. suggestion, but don’t turn reading into work.
- Give hints when your child gets stuck on a word.
- Have fun! Smile and enjoy the story. Read with a slow, relaxed voice and be expressive.
- Invite your child to the bookstore. Take time to lounge in the chairs and browse the books.
- Join in the your child’s reading successes. Celebrate every small step with sincere praise.
- Kids love to receive mail. Send your child a magazine subscription in an area that interests him or her.
- Learn to read with – not just to – your child daily. Read aloud, share ideas, and answer questions.
- Model reading. Share with your child, whether you’re reading for information or for entertainment.
- Never force your child to read. If both of you are too tired or discouraged to read, take a break.
- Offer your child a variety of reading materials – such as books, magazines, cereal boxes, comics, and newspapers.
- Predict story elements, draw conclusions, and retell the story with your child.
- Quiz your child the end of a story. Informally, of course!
- Reread books to familiarize your child with words and to build self-confidence.
- Sing songs, recite poetry, and do plays to help develop language and listening skills.
- Try to help your child understand that it’s okay to make mistakes.
- Understand that reading is developmental and that it takes time and practice to become fluent.
- Visit your local library on a regular basis. Sign your child up for his or her own library card.
- Welcome powerful picture books that help your child visualize the text messages.
- Xhibit patience with your child is selecting books. Your support is empowering.
- You are the most important person in helping your child develop a lifelong love for reading.
- Zealous readers are the result of supportive and nurturing role models.